Parliament Replaces Decades-Old Aircraft Act with Sweeping Reforms

Sheikh Rayees • December 6, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

India's civil aviation framework is set for a transformation as Parliament approves the Bharatiya Vayuyan Vidheyak, 2024, replacing the Aircraft Act of 1934. This legislative overhaul introduces contemporary measures while expanding regulatory oversight to keep pace with modern aviation demands. The Bill, tabled in the Lok Sabha on July 31, cleared the lower house on August 9 before receiving the Rajya Sabha's nod today. Key aviation bodies, including the Directorate...
