Maratha Quota Battle Reignites in Bombay High Court

Sheikh Rayees • May 16, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

A fresh judicial panel has been formed at the Bombay High Court, finally setting the stage for a long-delayed showdown over Maharashtra's controversial Maratha reservation law. After months of dormancy, the courtroom lights are back on — and the legal spotlight is now fixed on the Maharashtra State Reservation for Socially and Educationally Backward Classes Act, 2024, which grants a 10% quota to the Maratha community. On Thursday, a full...
