PUBLISHED REPORT

Parliament is set for a fiery debate as the government introduces the Jammu & Kashmir Reorganisation (Amendment) Bill, 2025—a proposal that could topple Chief Ministers and Ministers who find themselves behind bars for a full month. The amendment reshapes Section 54 of the Jammu & Kashmir Reorganisation Act, 2019, the law that came into being after the sweeping changes of August 2019 which dissolved Article 370, split the state, and...
