Delhi High Court Slams Police for Inexcusable Delay

Sheikh Rayees • February 20, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Delhi High Court came down hard on the city's police force, expressing shock at its sluggish approach to a case that has languished since 2016. The matter, involving allegations of insulting a woman's modesty under Section 509 of the IPC, has seen little progress despite nearly a decade passing. The accused, frustrated by the lingering cloud of a pending FIR, petitioned for its dismissal last year, arguing that the...
