Supreme Court Shames Uttarakhand Over Doctor's Widow Compensation

Sheikh Rayees • March 25, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a scathing rebuke that cut through bureaucratic apathy like a scalpel through red tape, the Supreme Court has ordered the Uttarakhand government to cough up INR1 crore in compensation to the widow of a government doctor who was gunned down while on duty back in 2016. What was promised as ex-gratia aid turned into a nearly decade-long ordeal in the courts — one the judiciary clearly found intolerable. The...
