

THE

LAWYERS' POST

BY THE COURT CAST PROJECT

SUPREME COURT

No Certificate, No Call Records Supreme Court Throws Out Key Evidence, Frees Man in Murder Case

Sheikh Rayees • March 11, 2026

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court of India has ruled that call detail records (CDRs) cannot be treated as valid evidence in court unless they are backed by the mandatory certificate required under the Indian Evidence Act. In the absence of this certification, the records are legally inadmissible.

Full report • lawyerspost.in

OPEN JUDGMENT PDF

FULL STORY

LAWYERSPOST.IN