Delhi HC Throws Out Plea Against Magazine Over Vantara Report

Sheikh Rayees • May 27, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a courtroom moment that quietly underscored the boundaries of free expression and judicial overreach, the Delhi High Court refused to entertain a contempt plea aimed at Himal Southasian, a magazine that ruffled feathers with its reporting on the transfer of elephants to Anant Ambani's wildlife venture, Vantara. The Court was unambiguous: Himal Southasian had violated no court directive—because no such directive existed. At the heart of the controversy was...
