Delhi HC Backs Government's Silent Axe on Turkish Aviation Firm

Sheikh Rayees • July 7, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a ruling that drew a sharp line between sovereignty and due process, the Delhi High Court declared that when national security is on the line, procedural fairness must step aside. The judgment came in a case filed by the Indian wing of Turkish aviation company Çelebi, which had its security clearance abruptly yanked by the Ministry of Civil Aviation on May 15, 2025. The company wasn't given notice, wasn't...
