Supreme Court Lets Haj 2025 Policy Stand, Nudges Fairer Pilgrim Distribution

Sheikh Rayees • March 22, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has stepped back from the fray, choosing not to derail the Union Government's Haj 2025 policy, even as a group of aggrieved Haj Group Organisers (HGOs) cried foul over what they called a skewed and discriminatory quota system. The HGOs had rushed to the apex court, challenging how pilgrim quotas were allocated under the new policy. Their complaint: some organizers were left scrambling with bare-bones numbers while...
