J&K High Court Bars Mother-in-Law from Appealing in DV Case She Wasn't Part Of

Sheikh Rayees • July 31, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a clear-cut ruling on who gets to challenge what under the Domestic Violence Act, the Jammu & Kashmir and Ladakh High Court shut the courtroom doors on a mother-in-law who wasn't even a party to the original proceedings. The woman had attempted to appeal an order passed by a Judicial Magistrate in a domestic violence case initiated by her daughter-in-law. The Sessions Court had already turned her away, saying...
