Supreme Court Declares Aiding Corruption a Crime for All

Sheikh Rayees • May 14, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a ruling that pierces the veil of passive complicity, the Supreme Court has made it resoundingly clear: even those outside the system can be held accountable for fueling corruption from the shadows. The judgment came in a case where a woman was convicted for helping her husband—a former Divisional Manager at United India Insurance Co. Ltd.—hoard assets far exceeding his legal income. The twist? The wealth wasn't in his...
