Delhi Court Warns Against Copycat Brands

Sheikh Rayees • October 13, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Delhi High Court has emphasized the need for heightened vigilance in cases of trademark violations within the pharmaceutical industry, asserting that proactive measures are essential to protect public interest. This directive came in a case where Mankind Pharma Limited challenged the marketing tactics of Sanshiv Health Tech Private Limited over their nutritional supplement, 'Calika-P.' In a decisive order, the court granted an interim injunction, barring Sanshiv Health...
