Pigeon Poop v. Public Health

Bombay High Court Puts the Kabutarkhana Debate Under the Microscope

Sheikh Rayees • July 26, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In the middle of Mumbai's noise, smog, and daily pigeon-feeding rituals, a curious courtroom debate is unfolding — one that weighs bird love against bronchial health. The Bombay High Court has called in medical reinforcements. A bench comprising Justices GS Kulkarni and Arif S Doctor has roped in Dr. Sujeet Rajan, a well-known city pulmonologist, to give his expert take on the health impact of pigeon droppings and feathers gathering...
