Delhi High Court Boots Out Illegal EPL Streamers in India

Sheikh Rayees • May 9, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Premier League isn't just contested on turf anymore — it's now being fought in courtrooms, with Delhi High Court emerging as the latest pitch. On May 7, in a swift strike, Justice Saurabh Banerjee handed Football Association Premier League Limited (FAPL) a decisive early victory, issuing an ex parte ad interim injunction against a swarm of unauthorized apps and websites that were illegally streaming matches across India. Targets included...
