Court Denies Bail to Factory Owner

Sheikh Rayees • March 14, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

A factory owner in Ludhiana faced a legal setback after the Punjab & Haryana High Court refused his plea for anticipatory bail, condemning his actions as “Taliban-style punishment.” The man allegedly paraded workers through the streets with placards reading “I am a thief” after accusing them of theft. The court found the act inhumane and damaging, stating that public humiliation of this nature could irreparably harm the victims’ social standing...
