Punjab Faces High Court Ultimatum to Fill Key Transparency Posts by December 15

Sheikh Rayees • November 13, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Punjab and Haryana High Court has firmly directed the Punjab government to appoint two State Information Commissioners by December 15, 2024, emphasizing the urgency of these roles in upholding transparency. The Bench, led by Chief Justice Sheel Nagu and Justice Anil Kshetarpal, issued a clear warning: failure to meet this deadline could trigger forceful action against responsible state officials. In a recent hearing, the Punjab government informed the court...
