Punjab & Haryana High Court Denies Bail to Man Accused of Taking Impounded Car From Police Station

Sheikh Rayees • November 23, 2026

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Punjab and Haryana High Court has refused anticipatory bail to a man accused of breaking into a police station and taking away his own car after it was impounded over an alleged drunk-driving incident in Hisar, Haryana. Justice Vikram Aggarwal observed that allegedly stealing a vehicle from police station premises was a serious offence and declined to accept the petitioner's explanation at the bail stage. "It indeed is a...
