Rajasthan Court Refuses Transfer of Matrimonial Proceedings

Editorial Team • September 19, 2026

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Rajasthan High Court has declined to transfer matrimonial proceedings solely because the wife said she lacked the means to travel. The court noted the husband's offer to meet travel expenses and the availability of alternatives including representation, video participation and reimbursement. The decision does not diminish the practical burdens faced by parties in family disputes. Instead, it treats transfer as one remedy among several and asks whether procedural...
