Rajasthan High Court Fines Lawyer INR50K for Misleading Arguments

Sheikh Rayees • February 12, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Rajasthan High Court has penalized a lawyer INR50,000 for presenting false claims to secure priority listing of cases. The ruling underscored the necessity of integrity between the legal profession and the judiciary. Justice Rekha Borana reprimanded the appellants' counsel for distorting facts, warning that misleading the court not only undermines the judicial process but also wastes valuable court time. The Court referenced Supreme Court rulings, emphasizing that...
