Rajasthan High Court Flags Serious Irregularities at Service Tribunal, Orders State-Led Inquiry

Sheikh Rayees • June 24, 2026

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Rajasthan High Court has ordered a detailed inquiry into the functioning of the Rajasthan Civil Services Appellate Tribunal (RCSAT) after a government school teacher alleged that an interim stay order granted in his favour mysteriously disappeared from the official record and was replaced with a different order refusing relief. Justice Ravi Chirania, while hearing the matter in April, expressed strong reservations about the explanation offered by the Tribunal's Registrar....
