Rajasthan High Court Restores Teacher's Job, Says Criticism of Minister Cannot Override Rule of Law

Sheikh Rayees • June 6, 2026

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Rajasthan High Court has set aside the suspension of a government school teacher who was accused of posting objectionable remarks about a minister on WhatsApp, ruling that administrative authorities cannot exercise powers that are not specifically granted by law. Justice Farjand Ali held that the suspension order issued against teacher Lal Singh Chouhan was legally untenable because it lacked statutory support and was passed by an authority whose competence...
