Sabarimala Sacredness Takes Center Stage

Kerala Court Bars Protests Disrupting Pilgrimage

Sheikh Rayees • December 6, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Kerala High Court has declared that Sabarimala, a revered site for devotees, must remain free from disruptions caused by strikes, especially during the spiritually significant Mandala-Makaravilakku festival season. The Court criticized a flash strike by dolly operators at Pampa, who protested the introduction of prepaid counters for their services by the Travancore Devaswom Board (TDB). A bench of Justices Anil K Narendran and Muralee Krishna S underscored that...
