Sale Deed Stands Strong Despite Witness Detail Mismatch, Rules Supreme Court

Sheikh Rayees • June 24, 2026

PUBLISHED REPORT

A registered sale deed cannot be brushed aside merely because an attesting witness provides slightly different personal details decades after the document was executed, the Supreme Court has held, reaffirming the strong legal presumption attached to registered property transactions. A Bench comprising Justices Prashant Kumar Mishra and N.V. Anjaria overturned findings of consolidation authorities and the High Court that had refused to acknowledge the...
