Sanctity Doesn't Shatter So Easily"

Karnataka High Court Slams Temple Panel's Bid to Oust Slum Dwellers

Sheikh Rayees • September 22, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a powerful rebuke, the Karnataka High Court tore into a temple committee's claim that slum dwellers living near a temple somehow "taint" its sanctity. Justice M Nagaprasanna made it clear: the divine is not so fragile that it collapses in the presence of the poor.
