Says High Courts Can Step In Early Under Section 482 CrPC

Sheikh Rayees • March 27, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

Breaking from rigid tradition, the Supreme Court has clarified that High Courts aren't shackled by the stage of investigation when it comes to exercising their powers under Section 482 of the Criminal Procedure Code. In essence: timing isn't everything. A bench comprising Justices AS Oka and Ujjal Bhuyan dismantled the idea that High Courts must keep hands off if a criminal probe is still in its infancy. The ruling came...
