SUPREME COURT

SC Hits Reset on Kakiho Village Row, Orders Nagaland to Reopen Recognition Process

Sheikh Rayees • May 27, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has yanked the brakes on the automatic greenlighting of Kakiho village, pulling back a Gauhati High Court directive that ordered the Nagaland government to grant recognition within a three-month deadline. Instead, the apex court has demanded a reboot: start afresh, listen to the objections—this time thoroughly—and take a proper call within six months. In plain terms: Nagaland must issue a new public notice inviting objections over Kakiho's...
