SUPREME COURT

SC Resurrects Adjournment Letter System After Advocates' Push

Here's What Changes

Sheikh Rayees • May 21, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

A Silent Fix for a Loud Problem On May 19, 2025, the Supreme Court quietly put out a new circular that's anything but routine—it breathes life back into a mechanism long missed by court regulars. The update follows a formal nudge from the Supreme Court Advocates-on-Record Association (SCAORA), which had written to freshly appointed Chief Justice B.R. Gavai on May 14, 2025, pressing for a return to the old system...
