Disability Isn't Disqualification — It's Time the System Understood That

Sheikh Rayees • May 6, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a powerful indictment of entrenched biases, the Supreme Court has overturned a denial of admission to a Scheduled Caste candidate with benchmark disability seeking entry to AIIMS Delhi's MBBS program — declaring it not just an error, but a constitutional failure. The appellant, born with multiple fingers absent in both hands and partial foot involvement, had cracked NEET-UG 2024 with a category rank of 176. Yet, he was repeatedly...
