Supreme Court Orders Probe into NOIDA Land Compensation Practices

Sheikh Rayees • January 24, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a landmark move, the Supreme Court has launched a deep dive into allegations of irregularities within the New Okhla Industrial Development Authority (NOIDA). A Special Investigation Team (SIT) has been tasked with unearthing whether excess compensation was paid to certain landowners and whether NOIDA's overall operations suffer from a lack of transparency and public accountability. This investigation stems from a petition filed by a NOIDA legal officer seeking...
