Shirdi's Blossoms Return

Flower Offerings Revived at Sai Baba Temple

Sheikh Rayees • November 17, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a significant decision restoring a cherished tradition, the Bombay High Court's Aurangabad bench has approved the resumption of flower and garland offerings at the iconic Shree Saibaba Sansthan in Shirdi. This ritual, paused for over three years due to pandemic restrictions and logistical concerns, is now set to bloom again under court guidance. The bench, comprising Justices Mangesh Patil and Shailesh Brahme, reviewed requests from the temple's management and...
