Silence Has a Price

Supreme Court Slams Andhra Govt for Ignoring Legal Notice, Orders INR70 Lakh Compensation

Sheikh Rayees • March 25, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a stinging rebuke to bureaucratic indifference, the Supreme Court has sent a clear signal: when the government ignores statutory notices, the silence will speak volumes—and could cost dearly. On Monday, the Court came down heavily on the Andhra Pradesh government for brushing aside a Section 80 CPC notice like it was just another piece of paper. That notice, sent nearly three decades ago, warned of impending litigation if the...
