Supreme Court Acquits Man in Murder Case, Cites Gaps in Evidence

Sheikh Rayees • February 27, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a significant ruling, the Supreme Court overturned the murder conviction of an accused, emphasizing that the prosecution failed to establish a direct link between the accused's statement and the discovery of the victim's body. The verdict underscores a crucial aspect of Section 27 of the Evidence Act: confessional statements cannot be used against an accused unless they directly lead to new discoveries. The case revolved around a missing person...
