Auroville Residents Cannot Demand Seats on Governing Body's Committees

Sheikh Rayees • March 18, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has ruled that residents of Auroville cannot claim a right to be part of any council or committee formed by the Auroville Foundation's Governing Board, stating their role is limited to offering advice and recommendations. A bench of Justices Bela M Trivedi and Prasana B Varale overturned a Madras High Court decision that had struck down the 2022 standing order establishing the Auroville Town Development Council (ATDC),...
