Supreme Court Backs Land Acquisition for Yamuna Expressway, Citing Critical Public Benefit

Sheikh Rayees • November 27, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a significant verdict, the Supreme Court upheld the land acquisition for the Yamuna Expressway, affirming its role as a transformative infrastructure project connecting Greater Noida to Agra. The ruling addressed disputes over the urgency of the acquisition process, emphasizing the project's pivotal role in regional development and public welfare. The Bench, comprising Justice BR Gavai and Justice Sandeep Mehta, dismissed challenges to the 2009 acquisition of land in...
