Supreme Court Blocks Retroactive Seniority Shift in Government Order, Cites Potential Chaos

Sheikh Rayees • October 2, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a significant ruling, the Supreme Court ruled against applying changes in a government order retroactively, emphasizing that such a move would disrupt the established seniority hierarchy across an entire cadre. The case revolved around a government employee challenging the seniority list based on a subsequent government order issued in 2015. This new order sought to revise a 2002 directive and base seniority on the date of initial appointment rather...
