Supreme Court Calls for Prudence in Orders That Leave College Seats Vacant

Sheikh Rayees • November 10, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a recent ruling, the Supreme Court offered financial relief to two medical colleges directed to leave seats vacant after a High Court's interim order, which ultimately resulted in those seats remaining unfilled. Recognizing the loss incurred by these colleges, the Court proposed a solution: allow the institutions to adjust future tuition fees to recoup their financial losses. The bench, comprising Justices B.R. Gavai and K.V. Viswanathan, suggested that the...
