Supreme Court Cautions Against Overreach in Domestic Cruelty Cases under Section 498A IPC

Sheikh Rayees • October 27, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a recent ruling, the Supreme Court addressed the prevalent issue of over-implication in domestic cruelty cases, expressing concern about the tendency to overstate allegations under Section 498A of the Indian Penal Code. The court highlighted the importance of preventing unnecessary suffering for those accused without sufficient evidence. A bench of Justices C.T. Ravikumar and Sanjay Kumar underscored that judicial caution is essential in identifying and averting unjust charges...
