Supreme Court Clamps Down on Bar Council Fees

Enrolment Charges Capped

Sheikh Rayees • July 30, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a landmark ruling, the Supreme Court has mandated that the enrolment fees charged by the Bar Council of India (BCI) and State Bar Councils must adhere strictly to the limits set by the Advocates Act. The decision came from a bench including Chief Justice of India DY Chandrachud and Justice JB Pardiwala, who clarified that the prescribed fees are INR750 for general category candidates and INR125 for those from...
