SUPREME COURT

Supreme Court Clarifies Only Recovery Disclosure Counts, Not Crime Confession, Under Section 27 of Evidence Act

Sheikh Rayees • October 8, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a ruling that reaffirms the narrow scope of admissibility under Section 27 of the Indian Evidence Act, the Supreme Court has acquitted three men convicted of murder, holding that only the part of a disclosure leading to the recovery of an object is admissible—not the portion where the accused admits its use in the crime.
