Supreme Court Clears Abetment Charges, Orders Fresh Probe Into Woman's Suicide

Sheikh Rayees • February 10, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has ruled that charges of abetment to suicide cannot stand unless the alleged harassment leaves the victim with no option but to end their life. In a recent verdict, the Court quashed abetment charges against the appellants, emphasizing that mere allegations or verbal exchanges do not automatically amount to criminal instigation. The case stemmed from the tragic suicides of Tanu and Ziaul Rahman, whose relationship was reportedly...
