Supreme Court Clears Path for Rectification of Company Registers in Cases of Clear Fraud

Sheikh Rayees • September 11, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a landmark decision, the Supreme Court has clarified that Company Law Tribunals have the authority to rectify the register of members under the Companies Act of 2013 when an applicant is clearly a victim of fraud. The Court, led by Justices Sanjiv Khanna and Sanjay Kumar, emphasized that the process of rectification involves correcting significant errors or omissions that should have been addressed but were not. They noted that...
