Supreme Court Commands Speedy Updates on Rejected Remission Pleas

Sheikh Rayees • November 5, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a decisive move, the Supreme Court has ordered all states and union territories to inform convicts about any denials of permanent remission applications within a week. This directive also mandates that copies of these rejection orders be sent to District Legal Services Authorities (DLSAs) to ensure swift provision of legal aid. The bench, led by Justices Abhay S. Oka and Augustine George Masih, issued a series of crucial directives...
