Supreme Court Condemns Discrimination Among B.Ed. Graduates

A Victory for Fairness

Sheikh Rayees • September 12, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has ruled against the discriminatory treatment of candidates from the same academic group based on their admission date. The case revolved around eligibility for Teacher Grade III Level II positions in Rajasthan's Scheduled Areas, with a focus on the B.Ed. course requirements. In 2017, Rajasthan authorities advertised for these teaching positions, requiring candidates to hold a graduation degree with at least 45% marks and a one-year...
