SUPREME COURT

Supreme Court Cracks Down on Bureaucratic Delays, Orders States to Penalize Errant Officials

Sheikh Rayees • December 6, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

Frustrated with government inefficiencies leading to significant financial losses, the Supreme Court has issued a decisive directive to all States: hold officials accountable for delays in filing legal appeals and impose penalties for negligence. The Court's rebuke stems from a growing pattern of delayed government appeals being dismissed due to procedural negligence. Highlighting the issue, a bench comprising Justice JB Pardiwala and Justice R Mahadevan...
