SUPREME COURT

Supreme Court Criticizes ED's Five-Year Delay in Chhattisgarh Corruption Probe

Sheikh Rayees • July 9, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court expressed dismay on Tuesday over the Directorate of Enforcement's (ED) prolonged delay in concluding the investigation into the 2015 Nagrik Apurti Nigam (NAN) scam related to corruption within Chhattisgarh's Public Distribution System (PDS). A bench of Justices Abhay S. Oka and Augustine George Masih granted the ED a two-week deadline to submit an affidavit demonstrating that Alok Shukla and Anil Tuteja, former NAN Chairman and Managing...
