SUPREME COURT

Supreme Court Criticizes Strategy of Lawyer Swaps to Rehash Arguments

Sheikh Rayees • November 5, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a striking critique, the Supreme Court lambasted a litigant for deploying a new lawyer to reargue a case the Court had already found lacking in merit. The incident unfolded after prior arguments had prompted the Court to express clear dissatisfaction with the case's standing but still allowed time for the litigants to obtain further instructions. Presiding over the matter, Justices Abhay S. Oka, Ahsanuddin Amanullah, and Augustine George Masih...
