SUPREME COURT

Supreme Court Declares No Room for Tactical Fragmentation in Litigation

Sheikh Rayees • December 21, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has firmly condemned strategic manipulation of judicial processes, ruling that litigants cannot withhold claims or issues in one proceeding only to raise them later in another. This practice, the Court emphasized, amounts to an abuse of the legal system and undermines the finality of judgments. Addressing a contempt petition linked to a mortgaged property auction by Union Bank of India, a bench comprising Justice JB Pardiwala and...
