Supreme Court Declares Relief Won by One Can Benefit All in Similar Cases

Sheikh Rayees • December 10, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a landmark decision, the Supreme Court reaffirmed that individuals are not required to initiate separate legal battles to claim relief already granted to others in similar circumstances against government actions. The ruling came as the Court granted a female Army officer a permanent commission, even though she had not pursued litigation personally. The bench, led by Justices BR Gavai and KV Viswanathan, emphasized a core legal principle: once a...
