Supreme Court Declares Revenue Record Errors Won't Undermine Property Deeds

Sheikh Rayees • July 17, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a landmark judgment, the Supreme Court emphasized that state rights conferred by a valid property deed remain intact, even if revenue records aren't updated promptly. This assertion came during a case involving land donated to Punjab for a Veterinary Hospital in 1958. Despite the transferor's heirs appearing in the revenue records, the court ruled this did not alter the state's ownership. The property was gifted to the State of...
