SUPREME COURT

Supreme Court Declares State Responsible for Pension in Disputed Employee Dismissal Case

Sheikh Rayees • December 7, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a decisive ruling, the Supreme Court rejected Gujarat's stance that it bore no obligation to provide retiral benefits to an employee of a state-aided educational institution whose dismissal was overturned. The Court emphasized that under the state's pension scheme, the financial responsibility lies squarely with the government. This case originated from a challenge brought by Nutan Bharti Gram Vidyapeeth, a Gujarat-based aided private institution, against a High Court...
